

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. There is evidently a Register Book missing, as there are no Baptisms, Marriages, or Burials recorded (except the burial of John Otley and the Mapletoft entries) between the years 1718 and 1735, a period of seventeen years.

Under the arch, next westwards to the Bishop's Throne, was found, in October, 1873, during the work of restoration, a flat stone inscribed—"Here lyeth the Body of Jonathan Pickering of this Citty, Alderman of the Company of Carpenters, he Departed this Life ye
5th day of August, and was Buried ye 7th, 1721."—J. H.

Being notes made in the original transcript by the transcriber, the late Thomas Hughes, F.S.A., of Chester, for many years Secretary of the Chester and North Wales Archaeological and Historic Society, a Foundation Scholar of the Grammar School, and Sheriff of the City, 1873.

1. John Allen, of Ainsworth in Middleton, County of Lancaster, and Margaret Bridgman of Chester, Widow, licensed to marry February 4th, 1686.

2. In the Register of St. Peter's, Chester, occurs the following :— “Mr. Peter Newton, Clerk, of ye County of Hereford, and Mrs. Sarah Thompson, Spinster, married in ye Quire of the Cathedral by Mr. Parry, then Minister of Holywell, Flintshire, 3rd December, 1692.”

3. Son of Henry Hughes, Verger from 1676 to 1695. Charles was appointed a Verger in 1691 and retained Office until 1729.

4. Dr. Entwistle was third son of John Entwistle of Foxholes in Hundersfield, co. Lancaster, by Dorothy his wife, daughter of Robert Holt of Castleton and Stubley in the same County. This was his second marriage, his first wife having been Grace, daughter of Dr. Nicholas Stratford, Bishop of Chester. He was married by the Bishop, his father-in-law, in the Little Chapel attached to the Episcopal Palace at Chester, in which the Venerable Bishop, Thomas Wilson, of Sodor and Man, had received orders years before.

5. John Jones had been previously for eight years a Chorister Boy at the Cathedral, and was promoted in December, 1688, to the post of a Conduct, which he retained until 1742. John Jones, Thomas Spencer, and Samuel Brown held the same conduct stalls in succession for the long term of 160 years!

6. John Smith, Bricklayer, Sworn a Freeman of Chester City, 1720.

7. Mary Townshend, wife of Robert Townshend of Coventry, Esquire, and afterwards of Chester (she was living in Chester in 1706), was a daughter of Sir John Dugdale, Norroy King of Arms, and grand-daughter of Sir William Dugdale of Blythe Hall, Warwickshire, Garter King of Arms. (Le Neves Knights, p. 319).

8. Peter Morrey or Murray was Minor Canon of Cathedral from 1687 to 1692.

9. George Preston was son of George Preston, a Conduct of the Cathedral, from the Restoration in 1660 to February 1689, when he was buried in the Cathedral. George, the son, was a Chorister Boy here from 1660 to 1668 when he was appointed a Conduct and held that Office for 31 years. The last ten years of which he was also Verger of the Cathedral.

10. By his first wife Grace, daughter of Dr. Nicholas Stratford, Bishop of Chester.

11. John Harrison elected a Conduct in 1669, and held the Office until 1711. He received also a Beadsman's gown in 1707. Buried here, November 9th, 1711.

12. He married Esther, second daughter and co-heiress of John Alleyne, of Gresley, Derbyshire, and was buried at St. Peter's—ancestor of Hincks, of Huntington.

13. Mr. Leftwich was one of the Executors of the will of Miss Barbara Dodd of London, 1721, and a Legatee for £5 under that will. (Poole's Chester, vol. 2, p. 989.)

14. Mr. Arthur Fogg and Mrs. Anne Burrowes of St. Peter's Parish, married at St. Oswald's by license, December 23rd, 1697. He was a King's Scholar, 1679.

15. Sir Henry, the father, was M.P. for Chester and son of Sir Henry Bunbury, by Catherine, daughter of Sir Kendrick Eyton, Knight, one of the Welsh Judges.

16. The mother's maiden name was Anne Barbour, Mr. George Kingsley was, according to the Kingsley pedigree, son of William Kingsley of Canterbury, born 1626. Gentleman of the Privy Chamber to King Charles II in 1663.

17. By his second wife Priscilla, daughter of Sir Thomas Bunbury, Bart.

18. The Hon. Robert Booth was fifth son of Sir George Booth, the first and Great Lord Delamere of Dunham Massey. He was Rector of Thornton le Moors, and died Dean of Bristol, August 8th, 1730.

19. Afterwards Sir Charles Bunbury, Bart., M.P. for Chester. He died a Bachelor, April 10th, 1742.

20. Succeeded his brother, Sir Charles, as fifth Baronet, 10th April, 1742. Was in Holy Orders and father of the well known Caracaturist "H. B."

21. Admiral Sir Peter, Bart., appointed to Command of the Mediterranean Squadron in July 1771, promoted to be Rear-Admiral of the White, October, 1770.

22. See Swift's letter in November, 1726 ("Manchester Guardian," Local Notes, 1875), to Mrs. Grenville, probably mother of Elizabeth, who is expressly referred to in the letter.

23. Rev. John Stones was Curate of St. Mary's in 1708, and on 27th October, 1709, he was married at that Church to Margaret Heele.

24. By his first wife, daughter of Dr. Nicholas Stratford, Bishop of Chester.

25. She was daughter of the Rev. Isaac Allen, Rector of Prestwich, co. Lancaster, and was the wife of Francis Harper of Stockport, Mercer.

26. Randle Holme dedicated to him and his two other relations (Thomas Thropp and Matthew Anderton) ninth chapter of the first book of his celebrated "Academy of Armory," 1688.

27. This is the lady who left the legacy to the widows of the Cathedral.

28. Cartwright's Diary," p. 17, Author of the "History of Christ's Sufferings," 1701.

29. Mr. William Finmore, Archdeacon of Chester, married Mrs. Mary Bennett of St. Peter's Parish, September 22nd, according to the tenor of a license dated September 21st, 1678.

30. The Rev. John Mapleton was brother-in-law of Bishop Gastrell who had married, on the 20th August, 1703, Elizabeth, only daughter of the Gresham Professor of Physic, the Rev. John Mapleton, M.D. and F.R.S. Rector of Craybrooke, Northamptonshire, and Vicar of St. Lawrence Jewry, London.

31. Extract from "Chester Courant":—"1812, July 18th, age 75, Mr. Ayres of this City, Pipe maker: an Honest and Inoffensive Man."

32. Richard Bruce was of Acton and Tattenhall. A daughter by this marriage, Mary Bruce, married in 1779 at Weaverham, Cheshire, to Benjamin Brassey of the City of Chester, Merchant, son of Thomas Brassey of Bulkeley and Buerton, Cheshire, from whom descended the late Thomas Brassey the Great Railway Contractor who was father of the present Lord Brassey.

33. Third (but second surviving) son of Thomas Horton of Chadderton, Esquire, Governor of the Isle of Man for Lord Derby by Anne Mostyn, his wife. Anne Clarke, his wife, was daughter of George Clarke, Esquire, Lieutenant-Governor of New York, and died s.p.

34. On her lead coffin, found March 14th, 1872, under the Chancel of the Cathedral, was the following inscription beneath a Scull and Crossbone:—"L. B., died June 14th, 1750."

35. The Rev. Abel Ward of Queen's College, Cambridge, B.A., 1740, M.A., 1744. First Curate to the Rev. Joseph Hulme whom he succeeded in the Rectory of St. Anne's, Manchester. I think he married a daughter of James Bayley, Esquire, of Manchester, whose wife Anne was a daughter of Bishop Peploe. See (Byrom's remains) Chetham Society.

36. Hugh Speed (writes Hugh F. Hall, Esq., of Greenheys and Wallasey) his great-grandson, was born at Chester on St. Mark's Day, 25th April, 1736 (O.S.), 6th May, 1736 (N.S.), and died 9th April, 1803.
